

Northwest Center for Educational Options REGISTRATION FORM

REGISTRATION for: Charter School Leaders: Too Many Hats/Not Enough Time

Running a charter school means a constant balancing act....with never enough time in the day! The many practical and operational requirements of running a charter school must be weighed against the needs of the students, staff, parents, and sponsoring district. This workshop will present helpful tools and effective practices on how to manage the many roles of a charter school leader. It will include a panel of charter school administrators who will share tips on how they effectively manage their time and resources.
